ROXBURY:
L. B. & O. E. WESTON, PRINTERS, GUILD ROW.
1862.

Mt. Pleasant, Roxbury, Mass.,
August 1, 1862.

The celebrated numismatic collection of Rev. J. M. Finotti is so widely known as to render any introductory remarks quite unnecessary; but I may state that the present Catalogue embraces all the finer specimens from the Howard or Dana, and the Brooks cabinets — Mr. Finotti, at different times, having added these collections to his own.

It may be truly said that, in the formation of this cabinet, "money was no object;" and while Mr. Finotti's critical knowledge enabled him at all times to make judicious selections, his fine taste never allowed him to rest satisfied with any specimen, however good, if a better one could be anywhere procured.

As a guarantee to collectors that the coins are fairly described, I refer with great pleasure to the following letter, from my esteemed friend Mr. Edward Cogan, of Philadelphia.

If the fact was not known to all American numismatists, I might mention that, in matters pertaining to American coins, Mr. Cogan's acquaintance with the subject, and his integrity of character, are such as to render his decision final.

W. Elliot Woodward.

Philadelphia, 48 North Tenth St.,
30th June, 1862.

Dear Sir: I beg to inform you that I have examined with great care your description of the collection of coins you contemplate offering for sale during the month of September or October next.

I am obliged to state that you had, in many instances, considerably underrated some of the finer specimens, which I am willing to believe arose from a desire not to give any possible chance of the collectors being misled by overstrained representations.

I have, however, made such alterations as I feel confident will leave no room for objection on the part of any one, and more especially of those who are obliged to depend upon the fidelity with which the coins are described in the Catalogue. I did not consider it of importance to describe the Medals, Political Pieces, or Store Cards, as all collectors are aware of the general condition of these pieces, but confined my examination to the condition of the regular coinage — Colonial, Pattern, and Washington series.

I would remark, in reference to the Colonial pieces, what I mentioned in one of my former Catalogues, that many may be fairly termed fine, referring to the relative condition of the piece, rather than to the coin itself, as it is well known that but very few specimens of the Colonial coins are to be found in any cabinets, which are really in an uncirculated condition.

In conclusion, I have only to add that I consider the collection the most valuable and interesting I have ever yet known offered for public competition.

Yours, faithfully,

EDWARD COGAN.

25.00 1329. 1652 New England Shilling; obv. N. E.; rev. xii. This undoubtedly genuine and very rare specimen was purchased at the great Cuff sale in England in 1855. Cost $25.

24.00 1330. 1652 New England Sixpence; obv. N. E.; rev. vi. Companion piece to the preceding, equally rare.

7.00 1331. 1652 Pine Tree Shilling; large planchet, splendid specimen, has been very little in circulation.

5.00 1332. 1652 Pine Tree Shilling; very fine specimen, doubly struck — tree of remarkable description, quite unlike the pine or oak, more nearly resembling the palmetto, a cross over the tree; one of the rarest varieties.

3.25 1333. 1652 Pine Tree Shilling; another remarkable specimen, bearing a general resemblance to the last, but still quite different.

3.50 1334. 1652 Pine Tree Sixpence; companion to the above.

4.00 1335. 1652 Pine Tree Shilling; trunk of the tree split; very fine specimen.

3.50 1336. 1652 Pine Tree Shilling; small thick planchet, dots in the circle very large.

3.00 1337. 1652 Pine Tree Shilling; small planchet, pierced, otherwise remarkably fine.

2.25 1338. 1652 Pine Tree Shilling; small, thick planchet.

2.00 1339. 1652 Pine Tree Shilling; wide-spreading tree.

5.75 1340. 1652 " " Legend, Masatusets; extremely rare type.

5.25 1341. 1652 Pine Tree Sixpence; thick planchet, slightly clipped, otherwise very fine.

Price. COLONIALS.—Continued.

$3.50 1342. 1652 Pine Tree Sixpence; similar to the last, not quite as good.

5.50 1343. 1652 Pine Tree Threepence; rare type, very fine.

3.00 1344. 1652 " " not as good as the last.

2.75 1345. 1652 " " another variety.

5.50 1346. 1652 Oak Tree Shilling; tree with very large trunk, remarkably fine.

3.50 1347. 1652 Oak Tree Shilling; another variety, fine.

3.00 1348. 1652 " " still another variety.

3.00 1349. 1652 " Sixpence; obv. fine.

2.75 1350. 1652 " " a variety, fine.

3.50 1351. 1652 " Threepence; obv. remarkably fine; rev. not so good; rare.

3.75 1352. 1652 Oak Tree Threepence; very fine.

3.25 1353. 1652 " " nearly as fine as the last.

9.00 1354. 1652 Pine Tree Twopence. It has been stated that the Twopenny piece was not coined until 1662, and that all pieces of this denomination bore as a device the Oak Tree, instead of the Pine. This piece establishes the fact that the coinage was commenced in the same year that the other pieces of the series were issued. This coin is of the most extraordinary rarity, and is believed to be unique.

3.50 1355. 1662 Oak Tree Twopence, very fine.

4.25 1356. 1662 " " equally fine.

ca. 5.00 1357. 1652 A full set of Pine Tree money. The Shilling is on a large planchet; a remarkably fine and handsome impression. The Sixpence is thick, slightly clipped, still fine. The Threepence is of a peculiarly rare type, and is said by a distinguished Numismatist to be the finest he has ever met with. The Twopence, 1662, is also uncommonly fine — 4 pieces.

ca. 1.00 1358. Set of Wyatt's Counterfeits, comprising New England Shilling and Sixpence, Pine Tree Shilling, Sixpence, Threepence, Twopence and Penny — 7 pieces, very fine and rare.

Price.

ea. $1.00 1359. A set similar to the above, lacking the Penny, in copper, much rarer than the preceding.

2.75 1360. James II., tin piece, fine and rare.

24.00 1361. 1694 Carolina Copper; obv. an elephant; rev. "God preserve Carolina and the Lords Proprietors;" fine impression, and very rare.

2.25 1362. Obv. from the same die as the last; rev. shield, "God preserve London;" very rare.

16.50 1363. Lord Baltimore Shilling; struck by authority of Lord Baltimore for the Colony of Maryland; very fine, and of the most extreme rarity.

21.00 1364. Lord Baltimore Sixpence; in splendid preservation, nearly as fine as the Shilling sold in Lilliendahl's collection — still rarer than the Shilling.

15.50 1365. Lord Baltimore Groat; pierced, otherwise fine — the rarest of the series.

2.75 1366. 1722 "Colonies Francoises;" rev. L's crowned, rare, and fine for this die.

1.25 1367. 1722 Like the last, not so good.

1.00 1368. 1722 Similar to last, but of different die, rarer variety.

50 1369. 1722 Rosa Americana Penny; rather poor impression, in fair condition for type, very rare.

2.00 1370. 1722 Rosa Americana Penny, good, very rare.

1.63 1371. 1722 " " Half-Penny, fine and rare.

87 1372. 1722 " " " good.

2.00 1373. 1722 " " " Vtile Dvlci; good, extremely rare variety.

4.50 1374. 1722 Rosa Americana Farthing, in fine condition for this very rare piece.

3.25 1375. 1722 Rosa Americana Farthing, almost as fine as last.

1.13 1376. 1722 " " " obv. fair; rev. poor.

3.00 1377. 1722 " " " "Ameri.;" very fine, and in this condition extremely rare.

2.00 1378. 1722 Rosa Americana Farthing, Ameri.; obverse poor, but good for this very rare type.

Price. COLONIALS.—Continued.

$12.00 1379. 1723 Rosa Americana Penny. Particular attention is asked to this magnificent specimen. It is of very fine color, perfectly uncirculated, and a proof impression.

1.12 1380. 1723 Rosa Americana Penny, crowned Rose; rather poor, but rare.

1.00 1381. 1723 Rosa Americana Penny, fair, rare.

1.50 1382. 1723 " " Half-Penny, rare and very good.

1.00 1383. 1723 " " " equal to the last.

4.50 1384. Rosa Americana Penny, without date, in very fine condition for this extremely rare piece.

50.00 1385. Granby or Higley Copper; obv. a deer standing in a circle facing to the left, "Value me as you please," III.; rev. a broad axe, "I cut my way through." Fine, and excessively rare — guaranteed original.

12.00 1386. 1766 Pitt Token; "No Stamps," &c. Uncirculated, nearly proof impression — in this condition of the highest rarity.

1.50 1387. 1767 Louisiana Cent, two sceptres crossed; rev. Fleur de lis, stamped R. F. Fine and rare.

1.00 1388. 1767 Like the last, equally fine and rare.

4.00 1389. 1767 Louisiana Cent, like the last, but not stamped. Fine, and a much rarer variety.

63 1390. 1773 Virginia Half-Penny, fair, scarce.

50 1391. 1773 Another about the same.

6.00 1392. 1776 Continental Currency; rev. 13 rings, with the names of the original States; in the centre, "American Congress — We are one." Tin, original, fine and rare.

70.00 1393. 1778 Non Dependens Status. For a description and engraving of this coin see "Dickeson," p. 90. This piece is in most beautiful condition, perfectly unique, and is perhaps the most remarkable and valuable coin in the entire collection. Its origin is traced, with a tolerable degree of certainty, to the staunch old Revolutionary patriot, Paul Revere, of Boston.

$0.75	1394.	1781	North American Token, fine, scarce.
6.25	1395.	1783	Georgius Triumpho; rev. Liberty behind 13 bars. Splendid uncirculated impression, extremely rare.
3.50	1396.	1783	Georgius Triumpho, almost as fine.
77.50	1397.	1785	Confederatio, device a blazing sun, composed in the centre of 13 stars; rev. An Indian, standing with one foot on a crown, one hand resting on an altar and grasping a bow; an arrow held in the other hand, and a quiver at his back. Legend, "America Inimica Tyrannis." This piece differs, in several important particulars, from either of the "Confederatios" described, and is believed to be unique.
33.00	1398.	1785	Immune Columbia; rev. Nova Constellatio. Extremely fine, and excessively rare.
3.50	1399.	1785	Vermonts Res Publica; mountains, with eight trees, sun rising, plough, &c.; rev. "Quarta Decima Stella." Unusually fine and rare.
1.50	1400.	1785	Vermonts Res Publica, similar to the last, and very nearly as fine, but different type.
1.00	1401.	1785	Still another, a slight variety, nearly as good.
1.75	1402.	1786	Vermontensium Res Publica; seven trees, sun rising, &c. Good, rare.
1.12	1403.	1786	Vermontensium, similar to the last, with eight trees; rarer variety, but not as fine.
1.50	1404.	1786	Auctori Vermon, known as the "Baby-head." Fine and very rare variety.
1.25	1405.	1787	Vermon Auctori; rev. Britannia. Fine and rare.
1.38	1406.	1787	Vermon Auctori, struck over a "Nova Constellatio." Fine, and very rare.
50	1407.	1787	Vermon Auctori, on very small planchet.
37	1408.	1787	" " precisely like the last, but on a large planchet.
30	1409.	1788	Vermon Auctori, die cracked entirely across; rev. "Et Lib. Inde." Very good.

$0.25 1410. 1788 Vermon Auctori, remarkably fine for date.
75 1411. 1788 " " with the legend close to the figure, leaving a very broad margin outside of the letters; die broken across. Fine for date, and very rare.
30 1412. 1788 Vermon Auctori, "Indc. et" to left of the goddess.
30 1413. 1788 " " every part on a reduced scale.
40 1414. 1788 " " very curious indeed; struck over some other coin. The inscriptions of the two coins curiously commingled.
15 1415. 1788 Vermon Auctori, small head.
15 1416. 1788 " " fine for date.
75 1417. Vermont Tory Cent; obv. "Georiuvs III., Vts."
3.75 1418. 1787 Massachusetts Cent; splendid specimen, scarcely any circulated.
1.00 1419. 1787 Massachusetts Cent; variety, fine.
88 1420. 1787 " " with a protuberance like a horn projecting from the head of the eagle. Fine and rare.
2.00 1421. 1787 Massachusetts Half-Cent, very fine and rare.
1.25 1422. 1787 Massachusetts Half-Cent, good, rare.
1.00 1423. 1787 " " a slight variety, nearly equal to the last.
3.00 1424. 1788 Massachusetts Cent, scarcely any circulated.
1.50 1425. 1788 " " dark color, but perfectly uncirculated.
1.50 1426. 1788 Massachusetts Cent, very fine; the third S in "Massachusetts" resembles the figure 8.
2.75 1427. 1788 Massachusetts Half-Cent, fine, rare.
2.25 1428. 1788 " " not equal to the last.
35 1429. 1785 Connecticut Cent; laureated head to the right. The drapery of the goddess of very peculiar description; scarce.
10 1430. 1785 Connecticut Cent, head to right, different.
35 1431. 1785 " " " " figure of Liberty nearly destitute of drapery. Good and rare.

15	1464.	1788	Connecticut Cent; obv. like last; rev. different.
15	1465.	1788	" " bust to left, well executed.
1.63	1466.	1788	" " struck over a "Nova Constellatio," the wreath of which appears on the head of the bust, starting from just above the eye, and forming a most elegant fillet; a projection like a horn from the top of the head. The legend reads "Tuctopi;" on the reverse, the stars and rays form for the goddess a most remarkable drapery. It is believed that no specimen of this coinage can be produced combining so many peculiarities. In fine condition, and without doubt unique.
35	1467.	1788	Connecticut Cent; legend reads, "Auctopi Connec." Good and very rare.
25	1468.	1788	Another variety of the "Auctopi," equally good and rare.
2.37	1469.	1785	New Jersey Cent; splendid impression, beautiful color, almost proof; so fine a specimen is scarcely ever met with.
30	1470.	1786	New Jersey Cent: handles of the plough wide apart, small shield; very good.

$0.38	1471.	1786	New Jersey Cent, plough beam much curved; very fine.

25	1514.		Vermon Auctori, peculiar type, pierced.
3.50	1515.		Kentucky Copper: edge lettered, "Payable in London, Lancaster or Bristol." Thin die, proof, rare, impression slightly imperfect at one edge.

$3.25 1516. Another like the last, much thicker.

2.37 1517. Another equally fine, plain edge, rare.

34.00 1518. 1786 Immunis Columbia, Liberty seated; rev. shield, "E Pluribus Unum." Splendid specimen, almost proof, one of the very rarest Colonials.

44.00 1519. 1787 New York Cent; obv. eagle, standing on a rock, "Neo. Eboracus," "Excelsior;" rev. Indian standing, bow in one hand, hatchet in the other, "Liber Natus Libertatem Defendo." Very fine, and of the most extreme rarity.

13.00 1520. 1787 Immunis Columbia, Liberty seated; rev. eagle, with spread wings, "E Pluribus Unum." In splendid condition, and exceedingly rare.

115.00 1521. 1787 George Clinton Piece; obv. name and bust of George Clinton; rev. arms and motto of State of New York, with the date. The piece is in almost proof condition. Apart from its excessive rarity, it possesses a peculiar interest, from the fact that it was the first one of the kind discovered, and was for a long time considered unique. But four others are known, and it is believed no one of them is quite equal to this.

2.13 1522. 1787 Nova Eborac; obv. bust in armor, facing right; rev. figure facing left, "Virt. et Lib." Good and rare.

1.75 1523. 1787 Nova Eborac, similar to the last, and in equally good condition.

2.50 1524. 1787 Nova Eborac, obv. same; rev. figure facing right. In very fine condition, rare.

1.12 1525. 1787 Nova Eborac, like the last, but not quite as good.

2.00 1526. Cut Quarter of a Dollar, without date; obv. an eagle, "Nouvelle Orleans;" rev. "P. B." in centre, surrounded by an endless chain of sixteen links, each link containing a star — formerly used in Louisiana in place of small coin.

1.50 1527. 1789 Mott's Jewellers' Token, original, in splendid condition, rare.

$52.50 1528. 1792 Silver Centre Cent, "Liberty, parent of Science and Industry:" rev. "United States of America." "One Cent." In very fine condition, extremely rare.

34.00 1529. 1792 Martha Washington Disme, in copper: obv. head of liberty, with flowing hair, "Liberty, parent of Science and Indus.;" rev. flying eagle, "United States of America," "Disme." In beautiful condition, and extremely rare.

12.00 1530. 1792. Head of Martha Washington, facing left. "Lib. par. of Science and Industry:" rev. flying eagle, "United States of America," "Half Disme." Fine and very rare.

4.25 1532. 1794. Talbot, Allum and Lee; rev. "Liberty and commerce." Splendid proof, rare.

75 1533. 1794. The same, in ordinary condition.

1.25 1534. 1794. Mule piece in brass: obv. "Liberty and commerce;" rev. "Birmingham Half-Penny, 1793."

1.37 1535. 1794. Mule piece in brass; obv. "Liberty and commerce;" rev. Stork. "Promissory Half-Penny, 1793." Very fine and rare.

1.50 1536. 1794. Same as the last, in copper, beautiful proof, rare.

20.00 1537. 1794. Baltimore Town Threepence; obv. Head of Standish Barry, "Baltimore Town, July 4th, '90;" rev. "Standish Barry Threepence." In fair preservation, and extremely rare; not above five of these pieces are known to be in existence: cost a former owner $50.

3.00 1538. 1795. Talbot, Allum and Lee, Cent. Splendid proof, thick planchet, rare.

2.38 1539. 1795. Another proof impression, on a thicker planchet.

4.00 1540. 1796. "Franco Americana Colonia," in silver, thick die, original; has been circulated a little, but is in very fine order.

RARE POLITICALS.

I HAVE recently succeeded in obtaining the original dies of some of the rarest of the Political Medals and Medalets, — amongst others the "Harrison Jubilee," by Mitchell. "Harrison:" rev. "Bunker Hill, A Nation's Gratitude," size 35. Another, "Harrison:" rev. Log Cabin, size 21, known in but one collection. The two last medals are by Stimpson. "Henry Clay, the Farmer of Ashland;" rev. "Nominated by the Baltimore Convention," size 23, dies by Thomas. "Henry Clay:" rev. "A Tariff for Protection," size 12; an old die, but probably never used. — Together with several others equally rare.

From all of these dies, I have caused a limited number of impressions to be struck, (in no case exceeding 26 in any one metal,) and have destroyed all the dies — thereby insuring the future rarity of every one.

The Medals have been struck with great care. They are mostly sold. The few remaining are offered to Collectors at an average price of five dollars in Silver, two dollars in Hard Metals, and one dollar in Tin.

In addition to Politicals, to which I give particular attention, I have always a large supply of rare AMERICAN MEDALS and COINS, both of the regular and Colonial series, all of which I offer for sale at very moderate prices.

To parties known to me, or furnishing suitable references, I am always happy to forward parcels of Coins on approval.

☞ Large or small Collections bought at liberal prices, or sold on commission.
